As a Workplace Giving contributor, you will help:

- Put food on the table of families and individuals experiencing severe financial pressures.
- Provide specialist support for bereaved families following the death of a child.
- Deliver intensive therapy programs for babies and children with Cerebral Palsy.
- Support youth mentoring program for 'at risk' young people.
- Provide drug and health education for disadvantaged students.
- Provide pathways for improvement through opportunities in education, training and subsequent employment.
- Provide drug and alcohol rehabilitation programs.
- Provide free household budgeting and debt management.
- Provide programs that keep 'at risk' young people in school.
- To maintain hearing support in our region.
- To provide emergency household goods such as pharmaceutical and material aid.
- And much, much more.....

Riding for the Disabled

As Geelong's leading philanthropic organisation, Give Where You Live is working to lead Geelong in building a better social environment where all members of our community have access to the same opportunities and resources to reach their full potential.

how give where you live makes a difference

When you support Give Where You Live through Workplace Giving your donation goes directly to help Give Where You Live Build a Better Geelong. Here are the Geelong community organisations that have received a Give Where You Live grant this year as a result of your generous Workplace Giving donations.
